

Section 2. No person shall be present in said Village of Concord at any game, sport, play or public diversion, or resort to any public assembly in said Village, excepting meetings for religious worship, or moral instruction, or concerts of sacred music, upon the evening of the first day of the week; and every person offending against the provisions of this ordinance shall be punished, upon conviction by a fine not exceeding five dollars for each offense.

Section 3. No person shall within the limits of said Village, on the first day of the week, by rude and indecent behavior, or in any other way, intentionally interrupt or disturb any assembly of people met for the purpose of worshiping God or for religious instruction, and every person offending against the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not less than two dollars nor more than fifty dollars, besides costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days.

Section 4. No person who conscientiously believes that the seventh day of the week ought to be observed as the Sabbath, and actually refrains from secular business and labor on that day, shall be liable to the penalties provided in this ordinance for performing secular business or labor on the first day of the week, providing he disturb no other person.

Section 4. This ordinance shall take effect twenty days after its passage.

Revised

BY-LAW No. XII.

An Ordinance Relative To Licensing Public Shows And Exhibitions.

The Village of Concord ordains as follows:

Section 1. That no person or persons, or corporation, shall exhibit in said Village any circus, menagerie or side show, or exhibit any natural or artificial curiosity, for which pay is demanded or received, without a license from the Clerk, and for every license granted for any business, object or purpose herein specified, there shall be paid by the person, or persons or corporation receiving the same as follows: Upon a license for a circus or menagerie or a circus and menagerie combined the sum of two dollars for each day upon which an exhibition shall occur; for each side show, and for every exhibition of natural or artificial curiosities, two dollars for each day's exhibition. This ordinance shall not apply to any exhibition or concert by the pupils of any school, or music teacher, residing in this Village, nor to any concert or entertainment given ofr any benevolent object, and every proprietor, agent, manager, person in charge, employee, assistant, or performer in any circus, menagerie, side show, or exhibition of natural curiosities who shall be engaged, or assist, or perform in any such exhibition, performance, or entertainment, for which license shall not have been duly granted, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this ordinance.

Section 2. Any person who shall be guilty of a violation of this ordinance, shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars or more than fifty and costs of prosecution, and the court before whom such conviction shall be had, may make a further sentence or order that in default of the payment of such fine and costs, within a time to be fixed by said court, that the person, or persons, so convicted shall be imprisoned in the county jail, until such fine and costs be paid, not exceeding sixty days.