December 8th, 1925, On motion by Reynolds, supported by Warner, the following amendment to By-Law # 23, Section 2, be amended to read as follows:

On motion an amendment was made to By-Law No. 23 of the By-Laws of the Village of Concord, Michigan, whereby Section 2 of said By-Law shall read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person either as principal or agent to engage in business as a transient merchant, in the Village of Concord, without having first obtained a license therefor. The word "person" as used in this By-Law shall include any corporation or partnership, or two or more persons having a joint or common interest.

The term transient "merchant" shall mean any person, firm or association, or corporation engaged temporarily in a retail sale of goods, wares or merchandise in any place in this Village and who for the purpose of conducting such business occupies any lot, building, room, or structure of any kind. (Such term shall not apply to any person selling goods, wares, or merchandise of any description raised, produced, or manufactured by the person offering the same for sale.)

The president and clerk of said Village of Concord are hereby authorized to license any person to engage in or follow the business of hawking and peddling in said Village of Concord, provided that no license shall be granted until the person applying therefor shall have paid to said president or clerk the sum of $8.00 for each and every day such transient merchant desires to do business in said village. Provided that no greater sum than $35.00 shall be charged for one week and provided further that no greater sum than $135.00 shall be charged for each and every month such transient merchant shall do business in the Village of Concord.
