I was second on-scene for the horrible accident at Moscow Rd. and Hanover Rd. involving the fully-loaded hog hauler and it was easily one of the most disturbing scenes I've come across in 20+ years of doing this. A lot of different departments, agencies and citizens came together to clear up a terrible situation. There have been some social media posts and other conversations that the police didn't know what they were doing and merely got in the way. I find these posts completely without merit and 100% unjustifiable.

Fair Week was a success and, at least on the nights I worked down there, most of Concord Township was represented along the food trucks and near the livestock barns.

on stage and sang Sister Christian w/ Night Ranger.

There is no truth to the rumor, however, that I jumped
