CALLS OF NOTE

March 7: I assisted multiple county units in Summit Twp. in the arrest of a subject who'd violated several court orders and abducted his ex-girlfriend. He was ultimately apprehended and taken into custody and the ex-girlfriend was okay.

March 15: Units handled a traffic crash in the village at M-60 & Main St.

March 16: Units – along with the state police – handled a report of a female juvenile who ran away from home to meet up with some older male friends in the Detroit area. She was ultimately located and returned home safely.

March 23: Assisted Spring Arbor Township Police on a suicide on Kevin Dr.

March 26: Multiple county units – with assistance from the State Police – engaged in the search for a 10 y/o Concord girl who, it was feared, had gone missing. Ultimately it was learned she had spent the night at a friend's house without permission and was safely returned home.

March 28: Units – myself included – handled 4 calls in 4 days involving a subject struggling with mental health issues in the township.

I contracted pneumonia during the fine month of March, and it is NOT a fun experience. The doctor said my lungs sounded 'like a bag of crushed potato chips.' I had to spend a week in my recliner, drinking fluids having my wife wait on me and watching television. I'm hoping to contract it again soon. (That's a joke – sort of.)

The road patrol traffic units have been spending time in Concord – hence the digital speed sign on Hanover St – and some results are in. They have issued 13 citations and 11 of those have been issued to Concord residents – 9 from the village! Included in the group were two residents who are routinely complaining about speeders there. As my late father used to tell me, 'it starts in the mirror, Larry – it starts in the mirror.'
